

S.O. 1.2 Authority of Probation Officer to Carry Firearms.

When qualified and specifically authorized by the Chief Probation Officer of this Court, and in compliance with applicable state and local laws, as well as such other conditions as may be prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States, each regularly appointed probation officer of this Court is authorized to carry a firearm for the protection of his or her person during the performance of his or her duties.